6 Days & Nights of touring these two lovely counties of South-West Ireland.
Join us as we travel to two of the most scenic & culturally rich areas of Eire.

Kenmare & Kinsale ~ October 23-30, 2008

While in Neidin (Old Irish for Kenmare) we will visit the rugged Ring of Beara to the south. We will see ancient ring forts, standing stones, colourful villages, lush semi-tropical gardens, ocean views and more. We will take a day trip to Dingle Peninsula, touring Dunbeg Fort, Gallorus Oratory & Dingle Town. There will be ample time to visit the many fine shoppes, markets and quaint pubs and restaurants located in Kenmare. We will have our own musician on board with Fintan Malone, who will be joined by Corkman Liam O’Riordan for our evening entertainment.

Derreen Gardens, Lauragh, Beara Peninsula, Co. Kerry

Kinsale is known as the gourmet capital of Ireland, with quaint pubs, crafts shops and numerous restaurants to suit any tastes. As we spend our time in Kinsale we will be visiting the area of Cork where Michael Collins was born and where he died., taking in Clonakilty Museum and the Michael Collins Center. We will see the Drombeg Stone Circle, and spend some time in Cork City. We will tour Kinsale’s Charles Fort, and also spend time in the town of Cobh, and departure site for many Irish who emigrated to the U.S. where we will do the innovative ‘Titanic Trail’ walking tour. We will visit Middleton Whisky Distillery and tour Barry-scourt Castle as well.

In the evenings we will go into Kinsale for nightly doses of entertainment, pub craic and fine pints of Murphy’s (when in Cork, do as the Corkonians do and drink Murphy’s). And again, we will have our own musicians to keep us well entertained in the evenings.
